United Way of Greater Topeka and Community Impact

Vision: Connected individuals and families maximizing their full potential

Mission: To achieve positive sustainable change through education, financial stability and health for everyone in our community

United Way of Greater Topeka (UWGT) brings together people, companies and non-profits to create positive sustainable change. We work to solve issues no single donor, charity or government agency can handle alone. By focusing on education, financial stability and health, we help more children graduate and get stable jobs, help families become financially stable and improve the overall health of our community.

UWGT's Goal is to Advance the Common Good

Education

- More children are ready for kindergarten.
- More children are on track to be successful in reading and math.

Income

- More individuals and families are financially stable.

Health

- More individuals and families are living healthy lives.

About the Goals

- Children who start school ready to learn and stay on track, particularly in reading and math, experience personal success and strengthen our future workforce.
- Increasing financial stability of families and individuals dramatically enhances the quality of life for everyone in our community.

UWGT is committed to helping people in crisis by supporting Basic Needs: Rent & Utility Assistance, Food Assistance, Healthcare & Prescription Assistance, and Safety from Domestic Violence.

Financial Stability Specifics

Situation

To make ends meet, families in Shawnee County are borrowing heavily and relying on high-cost alternatives to cover many of their daily living expenses. This cycle of increasing debt to keep up with the rising cost of food, gas, and many other everyday needs has left many families living pay check to pay check. These families are more vulnerable to crisis, and in the long term, they have a very limited ability to save for advanced education, a home, reliable transportation or retirement. This limits the economic potential of both the families and the communities in which they live. Tools are needed to help individuals and families be better prepared to make sound decisions in the areas of education, employment, and personal finance.

In 2016, the National Financial Educators Council delivered a survey to more than 1,000 young adults ranging in age from 8-24. When asked about which high school course would benefit their lives most, more than half (51.4%) said money management would be most beneficial.¹ Recent studies also indicate that nearly 6 in 10 young adults report paying bills on time each month.² Average student loan debt among students attending public and private four-year colleges and universities is $28,776. Among graduates from these institutions, 60% carry the burden of student loan debt. American households need greater access to financial education and literacy information and education. 39% of adults do not have retirement savings and the majority indicate that they do not have a budget.³

1. Quantity – the amount of service rendered;
2. Measurement – what the amount is measuring (e.g. hours, days);
3. Dollar Value – the value of 1 UOS

Formula for cost per unit of service:

Total cost ÷ Total units of service = Cost per unit of service

Example:

Unit of service = number of children served

Total cost of program = $100,000

Total number of children served = 100 children

Using the formula: $100,000 ÷ 100 children = $1000/child = $1000/unit of service
